Description

A pair of steer horns, over 22" long, wrapped in leather and mounted on a wood plaque with the United States Gymnastics Federation logo. The bases of the horns are wrapped in brown leather, embossed with an alligator pattern, and held on with round silver metal studs. The center cylinder is wrapped in brown leather. The wood plaque has rounded edges at the top and notched corners at the bottom. Inset is an oval silver plaque or belt buckle, with a raised bas-relief of the United States with two gymnasts in handstands, one enameled in blue uniform and one in a red leotard, and "U.S.G.F." at the top in raised letters. The plaque below has text stating "1982 UNITED STATES GYMNASTICS FEDERATION INTERNATIONAL INVITATION FORT WORTH, TEXAS" in black. The back has a hanging ring.
