Description

A handmade postcard made with cutouts from magazines and newspapers with an image of Governor Reagan head on a body builder's body holding an axe and standing on a tank running over President Jimmy Carter, whose head, hand, and foot are sticking out from under the tank. All around are text cutouts stating, "GO Reagan, best, Faithful, KING touchdown." The back of the postcard is inscribed, "Mr. Reagan, I know that you can get the world back to normal and solve all the problems if you are elected President. Julie Talbert."
